

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 28, 2013

Contact:
Johannah Hutchison
Executive Director
609.689.1051 ext. 304
Johannah@sculpture.org

THE INTERNATIONAL SCULPTURE CENTER WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBER, LUCAS COWAN

The International Sculpture Center (ISC), a global arts organization championing the creation and understanding of sculpture, announced the addition of Lucas Cowan to the ISC Board of Trustees.

Currently Lucas Cowan serves as the Director of Public Art Programs in the Department of Business and Economic Development for the State of Maryland/Maryland State Arts Council, and serves as Curator of Exhibits-for the Millennium Park Foundation in Chicago, Illinois. He administered the passage of a State Public Art Program for the state of Maryland and is responsible for public education efforts seeking to enhance knowledge of public art opportunities.

“Lucas [Cowan] is a champion for the arts,” said ISC Board of Trustees Member Ree Kaneko. “His passion is public art and he is a well organized art administrator. Lucas...has much to offer the ISC as a board member.”

The International Sculpture Center (ISC) is a member-supported, nonprofit organization founded in 1960 to advance the creation and understanding of sculpture and its unique and vital contribution to society. ISC programming includes awards to lifetime and student sculptors, and also patrons and educators. The ISC sponsors ISConnects, various conferences and symposia, and is the publisher of Sculpture magazine and isc Press publications. Membership services support sculptors, collectors, patrons, architects, developers, journalists, curators, historians, critics, educators, foundries, galleries, and museums – anyone with an interest in and commitment to the field of sculpture.